

Charlie: Did you have to be so cold to her?

Adrianna: I'll lighten up in a few days, I just need to establish the natural order around here

Charlie: Natural Order? It's not the wilderness Adrianna

Adrianna: The world is just one vast wilderness Charlie. Don't tell me you brought me in here just to scold my behavior towards the new girl.

Charlie: No I didn't. I wanted to ask you about Zoe.

Adrianna: What about her

Charlie: How is she?

Adrianna: She's a lot of things. She's charming. She's beautiful. She-

Charlie: You know what I meant

Adrianna: Well I don't think you really helped things by responding to her pregnancy with prolonged silence.

Charlie: I was overwhelmed. She caught me off guard, right before our performance. But you're right. I have to talk to her. Make sure she knows that I'm here for her and I always will be.

Adrianna: You really love her don't you

Charlie: More than I've ever loved anyone. I don't know what I'd do without her. (starts to leave)

Adrianna: Piece of advice Charlie, tell her that.
